

CULTURAL EXCURSIONS

NORTHWEST BALI TEMPLES, TRAIL & BANJAR HOT SPRING TOUR

IDR 1,150,000

Price per car for maximum 4 people

Inclusions: Car & guide, entrance tickets or donations, mineral water, Balinese scarves to wear to enter temples

Start time between 06.00- 10.00 am (~6 hours tour)

1. (Optional) Pura Batu Kursi & Batu Kursi Hike: A 30 minutes hike to a delightful temple and panoramic viewpoint of the ocean, villages, and rolling hills. The hike, though accessible, is steep, so we recommend setting off early in the morning to avoid the intense sun. If you want to catch the beautiful sunrise, we recommend departing at 5:30 AM latest.
2. The famous Pulaki Temple, a sacred site skillfully crafted by Empu, the revered Hindu master. Its name emerged as a tribute from his devoted students who, not knowing his real name, affectionately referred to him as "Empu Laki" (meaning male master), eventually evolving into the shortened name, Pulaki, it holds today.
3. The serene Melanting Temple nestled amidst a lush forest at the foot of the Pemuteran Hill, legend tells us that the temple was lovingly erected by the revered priest, Dang Hyang Nirartha, during his momentous voyage from Java to Bali.
4. Banjar Hot Spring, a centuries old hot spring that is a favorite amongst locals. Nestled amidst the jungle, the complex boasts traditional Balinese architecture with unique dragon spouts and a tiered structure. The water is therapeutic due to its sulphuric content, and for centuries people have come to revitalize their health.
5. If time permits, we will visit the Brahma Vihara Arama, Bali's largest Buddhist temple, perched atop a tranquil hill, where you can find your inner peace while marveling at the breathtaking vista.
6. Lastly, we'll immerse in the mesmerizing beauty of Kerta Kawat Temple, boasting a magnificent Bentar (Balinese-style gate) with intricate carvings against a backdrop of steep hills that add an extra touch of wonder to this sacred site.
